FBIB intercepts of local Soviet broadcasts in local languages.

Attention: Mr. Ross H. Ingersoll, IAD

1. Receipt of your letter dated 23 February 1949, commending this branch for its valuable intercepts of local Soviet broadcasts in local languages, is gratefully acknowledged. Such expressions are genuinely appreciated.

2. FBIB makes every effort to render the kind of service desired by users of its product. However, there are at times inadequacies of which we become aware only as they are called to our attention.

3. Your constructive criticism, which is solicited, can make a definite contribution toward improving our product.
